PRINCIPAL'S / SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT COUNCIL REPORT

This has been a very good year at Pineview Elementary School. Our teachers and students maintained their focus on LEARNING throughout the year. The students were engaged in a number of service activities and set an example for other schools in our community. Several of our accomplishments were:

- A. Pineview was recognized as an "Excellent" school by the State Department of Education, and statewide as a Healthy School Award winner.
- B. The school was recognized with an Earth Flag for recycling paper, cans, and telephone books. With the help of the community, we recycled over 56,000 pounds of telephone books.
- C. Pineview's Physical Education teacher was recognized as S.C. PE teacher of the year.
- D. Eighty-nine percent of our parents attended Parent/Teacher conferences during the first quarter.
- E. A new wing composed of a physical education gym, music room, and art room, has been completed.
- F. Our students and staff placed a strong emphasis on writing throughout the year.

Our teachers are working very hard this year to meet the goals of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools. They have attended professional development conferences and served on district committees. The 10-year accreditation will be concluded in the spring of 2002.

Mrs. Suzanne Freeman was selected as Teacher of the Year for 2001-02 and is now competing for the district Teacher of the Year award. Mrs. Teresa Calcina was selected as The Staff Person of the Year for 2000-01.

We have a very active PTA and School Improvement Council. The PTA raised funds for the school to use for instructional materials, field trips, and teacher travel to conferences. Pineview Elementary School is a community of students, teachers, and parents - a community that is a CHAMPION FOR CHILDREN.
